In regard to the above-cited pending patent application, the enclosed drawing sheet is being submitted in response to the "Notice of Non-compliant Amendment" dated July 6, 2006, which concerns the Preliminary Amendment filed on July 29, 2004. The enclosed drawing sheet is properly identified "Replacement Sheet" in the top margin. Nothing else has been added to the drawing. It appears from a reading of the notice that only the corrected section (attached) of the amendment is required. The July 29, 2004 amendment is believed to be in compliance. Allowance of the claims is requested. Thank you.

Respectfully submitted,
